

SUBJECT: Principles and Techniques of Interviewing

COURSE: INTELLIGENCE PRINCIPLES AND METHODS

HOURS: 1

METHOD OF PRESENTATION: Lecture

INSTRUCTOR: [REDACTED]

25X1A

OBJECTIVES:

1. To establish role of interview in the collection of information for intelligence.
2. To suggest some techniques in using the interview effectively, with particular reference to [REDACTED]

25X1A

SUMMARY OF PRESENTATION:

Interviewing is introduced as being a part of the collection phase of intelligence. The word is then analyzed from point of view of its origin and various uses, and its limitations as a collection device.

The instructor offers suggestions on preparing in advance to conduct a successful interview. The bulk of the lecture involves discussion of suggested techniques. Finally, the importance of making a written record of the interview as soon as possible is stressed.

SUBJECTS WITH WHICH COORDINATION IS REQUIRED:

Collection, Demonstration interview.

1372

CONFIDENTIAL